YWCA Tasting Tour In Local Homes Is April 17

Events Planned In Library Week

Once again the library world is ready to take the center of the stage as National Library Week approaches.

This year, the week of April 21 is to be filled with special observations at the Memorial Hall Library. As in the past, there will be displays of the new spring books in the main reading room and in the children's room. The adult reading room has three exhibits planned:

Notable Books for 1962, with printed lists of the titles considered by libraries and book-sellers to be outstanding publications of last year; a large collection of last year's best-selling books.

The Y.W.C.A.'s Tasting Tour, which has been planned to raise funds for the development of Camp Y-Wood, will be held Wednesday afternoon, April 17, between 1 and 4 p.m.

Members and friends may visit seven Andover and No. Andover homes, which range in type from Colonial and Cape Cod to contemporary.

The tour committee, headed by Mrs. Willard Currier, has planned the afternoon carefully to avoid confusion and bottlenecks. Although all guests will have an opportunity to visit all of the homes, they will begin in three different places as indicated on their tickets. At the "first house", detailed directions for the rest of the tour will be distributed. The three "first houses" will be the homes of Mrs. Frank Barber, Mr.

Designate Appointees Under Conflict Of Interest

The Selectmen have placed themselves in a "general employee" category - thus compelling members of the Board to abstain from doing any business with the town, or representing anyone before town boards.

While dealing severely with themselves, three members of the Board present at Monday night's meeting wanted it understood that all personnel classifications under the conflict of interest law are for the protection of the individuals, and in no way reflect on the Board's opinion of their honesty, capabilities or desire to serve the community.

Then, with the assistance of Atty. Fredric S. O'Brien, they classified all appointed and elected officials - into three categories:

General employee - no business with the town.
Special employee - may appear before boards and committees other than their own, but must have no contractual dealings with the town.

Special with exemptions - may deal with other boards; specific exemptions allow individual to do business with the town.

General Employees

Without any question, the three members classified themselves; and then listed town Counsel O'Brien, Town Manager Thomas E. Duff, Assessor William Russell; School Supt. Edward I. Erickson, Police Chief David Nicoll, Town Accountant Wendell Mattheson, Welfare Agent Paul MacMillan, Building Inspector Arthur Peatman, Officer William Tammany, Town Hall Custodian George W. Campbell, Town Clerk Irving O. Piper, Fire Chief Henry L. Hilton, and Deputy Fire Chief Albert Cole Jr. as general employees. Their names came up because they serve on an appointed board or committee.

Exemptions Granted

In a number of cases, appointees or elected officials were given exemptions so they can continue to do business with the town - but not with their own board.

The exemptions listed are:

Edmond Hammond, retirement board; School Committeemen William Doherty, John S. Sullivan and Vincent P. Davey - Mr. Doherty for insurance with the town but not the schools; Mr. Sullivan for any bonding handled by National Shawmut Bank or deposits therein; Mr. Davey so he can referee basketball games.

Warren Lewis and W. R. Hill, Sanborn School Building Committee, the former relative to bonds his firm might buy, the latter for all town business except that dealing with the school.

Civil Defense Director Burton Ratcheller, for all business except sale of vehicles or services to CD; Winston Briggs, same exemption.

Virginia Hammond, Planning Board exemption to allow her father-in-law, Edmond Hammond, to handle securities for the retirement board; Leo F. Daley, Library trustee exempt allowing him to

Raytheon Will Remain Open

Local Raytheon officials vigorously denied rumors this week that the plant will eventually be closed.

Vartkes Sohigian, speaking for the firm, stressed the absence of any plan leading to an end to Raytheon operations in Andover. His statement followed not long after a published denial by company officials, in response to queries by Congressman F. Bradford Morse.

Mr. Sohigian said there is not the remotest possibility, in his opinion, that any such drastic action will be taken.

Layoffs at the plant are continuing, he acknowledged, but these are not the forerunner for closing down the operation.

The plant population this week was pegged at 7,600 while the peak employment was recorded Jan. 1, at 8,000.

Cooking School Interest Grows

There's a buzz of excitement again this year about the Cooking Party scheduled for Wednesday, April 24, in Central Elementary Auditorium on Bartlett St.

This is the event being sponsored jointly by the Andover Consumers' Co-Operative, the Andover Townsman and Westinghouse Appliances, for the entertainment of every housewife and husband who likes to cook, shop or eat.

Co-ordinating the event for the evening will be Mrs. Jeanne Ambuter, who will cook a variety of tasty dishes on the newest Westinghouse appliances. These dishes will include a surprising new orange cake, Hawaiian style pork chops, a spicy apple dessert, a hearty ham and bean supper and a springtime salad. Each of these delicious dishes will be awarded as a door prize.

Following the cooking demonstration, United Farmers will serve milk and the Andover Co-Op will serve Nissen's doughnuts for refreshments.

After the refreshment intermission, Mrs. Ambuter and an expert from the Co-Op meat department will combine talents to present an illustrated lecture on

Jay Klier Won Space Derby

At the regular monthly meeting of Cub Scout Pack 71 of the Shaw-shen School, an exciting Space Derby was held.

Each cub had made a space rocket which was entered in the event. There was one winner from each den and then a grand prize winner with second and third place awards also being given.

The following boys won from their dens:

Den 1 - Robert Riedel; Den 2 - James Palmieri; Den 3 - Gregory Freije; Den 4 - John Ramsdell; Den 5 - Jeffrey Bond; Den 6 - Keith Starks; Den 7 - Alfred Naman; Den 8 - Gary Fraser; Den 9 - Jay Klier and Webelos - Ivan Leger.

The grand prize winner was Jay Klier, who won a canteen; second prize of a Boy Scout flashlight went to Robert Riedel; and the third prize of a Boy Scout pencil was won by Jeffrey Bond.

The opening ceremony was by Den 7, under the direction of Mrs. Margaret Rice. Buckskin reports were read. The Honor Flag was presented to Den 2 for the den with the best rocket designs made by the cubs. The Webelos and Den 7 had honorable mention.

The closing ceremony was led by Den 8 under the direction of Mrs. Dorice Leger. Each Cub also took the litterbug pledge to do his duty to keep America clean.

The following boys were presented with the awards they had earned: Charles Cataldo, Bear; Wolf badges - David Privitera, Robert Souter and Alfred Naman; Silver Arrows, George Cox and Edward Simpson.

Picnic Planned By West PTA

Children attending the West School and their parents will enjoy a picnic, as a feature of the next PTA meeting.

Plans for the May activity were made at an executive committee meeting at the home of Mrs. Frank Stevenson.

The event will start at 4 on the school grounds, with planned games for both parents and children, followed by a baseball game.

Parents will bring box lunches, coffee will be available and ice cream will be given to the children.

Attending the meeting were Peter Olney president; Mrs. Robert Haag, Mrs. Lenley Kohli, Mrs. Leonard Coppeta, Mrs. Michael Nicolosi, Mrs. Frank Stevenson, Thomas Murphy and Mrs. Morton Green.

PFC William G. Coutts Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. William G. Coutts, 34 High st., is serving in intelligence with Headquarters Battery, 3d Howitzer Co. of the 37th Field Artillery. He is stationed in Germany. His father just completed 25 years as a permanent member of the Fire Department.

Mrs. Gyrsting

Sends Best Wishes

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Gyrsting of High st. were pleased recently to receive a tape recording from Mr. Gyrsting's mother, Mrs. Kirsten M. Gyrsting of Copenhagen, Denmark.

The three Gyrsting children were particularly excited to hear their grandma's voice even 16-month-old Steven seemed to recognize it. In her familiar way, she read the children a story and they all sat glued in place, listening intently.

Mrs. Gyrsting Sr. is well-acquainted with many Andover people, having made an extended visit here not too long ago. She asked to be remembered to all friends, as she always does when she corresponds with her son and his wife.

She has been spending a good deal of time weaving, which she does beautifully in spite of her blindness. She is also busily engaged in redecorating her apartment and eagerly looks forward to the day when she may have some very special guests from America.

Early Birds To Hold Banquet

The Early Birds Bowling League will hold its annual banquet April 25 at the Century House.

Reservations for the affair may be made with Mrs. Lloyd Bruce, 12 Gilbert st., North Andover.

The winning team this year was the Larks, with the Wrens, Robins and Jays following in order.

Peg Townsend had the high average, 93.55; Jean Harrison, high triple, 311; Barbara Botsh, high single, 120.

MAJOR PROJECT - one of the major jobs surrounding Route 495 construction has been relocation of the sewer and water lines. At the foot of what-used-to-be Fletcher st., contractors drove this sewer pipe underneath the railroad. A small cart travels inside the pipe, onto which stone and fill can be loaded by workmen. Powerful blows on the end of the pipe force it through the filled railroad bed, without the necessity of excavation from the surface. A similar task, on a larger scale, faces the contractor doing the Rogers Brook job off Lupine rd.

Team Teaching At Junior High

In this day of technological specialization a concept of instruction known as team teaching has come into frequent use by progressive school systems.

At the Andover Junior High School, a modification of this form of instruction has been instituted by the science department as well as English and social studies departments.

Faculty members having special interests or major areas of study in specific scientific subjects make available this specialty to classes other than their own. A very large number of students therefore receive the best available instruction on a wider number of subject areas at the school.

The modified team approach has been instituted at the Junior High School for the past few years and has been in a constant state of evaluation and expansion since its inception. Among the teachers involved in this new approach have been Mrs. Frederick Monell and Robert Bachmann of the ninth grade science department. Mrs. Monell conducts the combined groups in biological sciences while Mr. Bachmann serves the combined groups in the physical sciences.

By the process of parallel class scheduling, a free exchange of student groups or a combination of classes is readily possible. Such a combined grouping has just been completed for the purpose of instruction in the area of the physics of sound. Both Mrs. Monell and Mr. Bachmann presented preliminary introduction in this subject area and then the classes combined under Mr. Bachmann for specific lecture and advanced demonstrations.

This approach to teaching, while not specifically a new approach, has of late received extended approval and support by the administration. It is one more method schools may use to attempt to maintain a degree of excellence in a time when increasing enrollments and a rapid change in technology might tend toward a mediocrity in the teaching of students.

RECREATION COMMITTEE - The town's expanded Recreation Committee met Monday night. James D. Sorota, Durwood Moody, Director Leslie Bartow, Mrs. Charles Leigh, Walter Pearson and Mrs. R. Milton Cole.

AVIS Gets Academy Land

The Trustees of Phillips Academy have decided to the Andover Village Improvement Society, eight acres of land lying in the angle between Rocky Hill rd. and Route 125, diagonally opposite the State Police barracks.

The land is largely marshy and densely wooded. Henry W. Schereschewsky comptroller of the Academy, and Harold R. Rafton, chairman of the AVIS Land Committee cooperated in effecting the transfer.

Albert R. Retelle, president of AVIS commenting upon this gift said: "Marsh lands used to be considered a nuisance, fit only to be drained and filled; but land management studies in recent years have completely changed this concept. It is now realized that marshes are of great value to the immediate and surrounding communities as affording storage for water lessening flood damage, and maintaining water table levels. Additionally, they provide a habitat not only for bird and animal life, but also for many varieties of plants and flowers."

He continued: "The area in question constitutes a notable addition to the land which AVIS holds permanently for the benefit of the public. Aside from its general utility as just explained, it fits into the AVIS conservation program of obtaining green areas and providing for the enjoyment and study of nature, AVIS, and the community as a whole, is indebted to Phillips Academy for this fine gift. It is to be hoped that it will serve to stimulate interest in others who own marshes, meadows, woodlands, stream banks or other lands, and who are in a position to do so, to donate them to AVIS. In so doing, they can serve the community by assuring permanently the conservation, recreational and green area values of such lands, in an age when open spaces are so rapidly disappearing."

Cardinal Dedicated New Church

Richard Cardinal Cushing dedicated St. Robert Bellarmine Church on Haggett's Pond rd. last Sunday, and administered the Sacrament of Confirmation to a class of 33 children, the first time this has been done at the new Church.

The Rev. Francis L. Sullivan, pastor, was deacon of exposition for the Solemn Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament and served as chaplain to the Cardinal, along with the Rev. Paul T. Keyes, curate.

The Rev. Francis J. Greene, pastor of St. Martha and Mary Church, Lakeville, was deacon of the Rev. James A. Wenzel, O.S.A., of St. Augustine's Church, was sub-deacon; Rt. Rev. Francis S. Rossiter, S.T.D., S.S.L., of Brighton was master of ceremonies.

Gas Company To Lower Rate

As a result of long drawn-out negotiations on the part of officials of Lawrence Gas Company, a further reduction in rates is announced by vice president and manager Robert E. Maguire.

Gas users in this area will begin benefiting by a second rate reduction within three months, effective with their April bills.

Following the settlement of three pending rate cases with Tennessee Gas Transmission Company, which supplies the local company, rates were reduced effective Jan. 1 in the amount of $120,000. The new rate reduction which will be effective April 1 will bring users an added $20,000 less on their gas bills annually.

The first reduction came about as a result of the Federal Power Commission's decision approving reduced rates for bringing gas to New England. The second reduction came as a result of a reduction in rates on the part of certain producers for Tennessee Gas Transmission Company. By agreement, these reductions in turn have been passed on to the local company. It is indicated that other reductions are pending and will be announced at future dates.

Exploding Sun, Massive Fire - In 10 Billion Years

Shades of 1872 — they're burning Boston down again!

As most fire buffs know, the conflagration of 90-plus years ago was for real, and it devastated the center of the city.

The current fire, on the other hand, is only make-believe and does no more harm than send a few shivers down the spines of visitors to the Charles Hayden Planetarium at Boston's Museum of Science.

The Boston-burning is the climax to the Planetarium's new star showing, "The Sun in Action", which runs until June 30. It's part of a dramatic sequence showing the life story of a star — in this case our life-giving sun, center of our solar system.

Astronomically speaking, the sun is just a plain ordinary, medium-sized average star known as a yellow dwarf of the main sequence. Assuming it follows the life patterns of similar stars, the sun, born eons ago out of the dust and gases in space, gradually condensed towards its center until it began to burn and sustain itself by atomic reactions.

In time to come, the sun-star will begin to grow unstable. It may swell into a supergiant and eventually balloon out to swallow up nearby planets like our earth. Then it may pulsate or even explode.

Following this fury, the exhausted sun will probably collapse upon itself, shrinking into a small, white dwarf star. In this stage it will gradually burn itself out to become ultimately only a small cinder in space.

The Planetarium's showing traces this life course to just past the supergiant stage when Boston and all the cities of the world become enveloped in flames. (There's no cause for alarm just yet, however; it's estimated that the sun still has some 10 billion years of life.)

Another extraordinary sequence, forming a major part of the current showing, is a dramatic re-enactment of the solar eclipse to occur this year on July 20, from 4:40 p.m. to 6:45 p.m. eastern daylight time. The eclipse will be total in central Maine (5:45 p.m.); nearly so in Greater Boston, where only a thin crescent of the sun will be visible. This effect is one of many demonstrated in the Planetarium with the help of its amazing Korhonen projector.

Also included in the 45-minute showing is an imaginary trip to the planet Mercury for a closer look at the sun and the various kinds of stars found in the universe.

"The Sun in Action" can be seen Tuesday through Friday at 11 a.m. and 3 p.m.; Saturday at 11 a.m., 1:45 p.m. and 3 p.m.; Sunday at 1:45, 3, and 4:15 p.m.; and Friday nights at 8.

LOCAL GIRLS HAVE ATTENDED ART COURSE

Talented High School students from all over New England were awarded prizes of free tuition in a survey course in art at the studios of the Boston Museum School.

For seven Saturday afternoons, beginning last Feb. 23 and ending Saturday, April 6, these young artists have been given introductory talks and demonstrations in each of the fields of Commercial Art and Design, Drawing and Graphic Arts, Painting, Sculpture, Ceramics, Jewelry and Silver-smithing, and Teacher Training. Saturday, a Museum trip and convocation, with presentation of certificates and a garden court reception, are scheduled at the Museum of Fine Arts, and parents and teachers are invited to attend.

Two awards were offered to each participating high school and private school, and juniors and seniors were selected by their own art teachers. This is the twelfth year the School of the Museum of Fine Arts at 230 The Fenway, Boston, has presented this program. This year's enrollment is 350, the largest number of participants ever to take advantage of this unusual educational opportunity.

The following local students have been attending: Suzanne Burton, 66 Central st. a student at Abbot Academy. Her art teacher is Virginia Powell. Edith Petzold, 134 Jenkins rd., an Andover High School student, selected by Frances L. Dalton, art director.

ON TOUR
Included among the 56 members of the Moravian College Choir, currently on Spring Tour are Dorothy Joy Klie, a sophomore studying mathematics. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Klie, 17 Rolling Rock rd. She sings soprano with the Choir.

Thursday evening, there is to be an informal talk given by Justin Curry, one of Andover's young artists with considerable training and ability, on "How A Painting Is Created". He will show how the actual process develops from idea to finished product. All who have ever wished to try painting are most cordially invited.

As part of the decoration, the library is planning an arrangement of paintings and drawings by Andover people of Andover subjects, to be on view during the week. Be sure to leave yourself at least an hour or two for a visit to your library in the week.

There will be a special movie program for boys and girls Thursday, April 25, in National Library Week. There will be a Walt Disney True-Life Adventure film, "Seal Island."

All are invited.

Represented District Government Day

Miss Elizabeth Garrison, a senior at Andover High School, attended the annual Student Government Day at the State House in Boston Friday, April 5, as a representative of the Fifth Essex District.

She met with the other students in the House chamber for the opening ceremonies and a welcome from Governor Endicott Peabody, and then attended hearings of House Committees, who were discussing whether citizens should be allowed to vote at the age of 18, and the regulation of advertising matter which might be offensive. During the afternoon the students listened to debates on various proposed bills.

Miss Garrison found that her interest in politics was much augmented by the experience of taking part in Student Government Day. She is a member of the National Honor Society, Senior Class Council Service Club, French Club, is copy editor of "The Mosaic" and on the staff of the yearbook. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Garrison, 15 Arcadia rd.

Andover Morning At Museum

Groundwork for an "Andover Morning" at Boston's Museum of Science was laid recently, when a committee planning the event met at the home of Mrs. Philip K. Allen, 1 Highland rd. She is a board member of the Museum's Service League.

Andover morning is scheduled for Tuesday, April 30, when local residents will be the guests of the League, a volunteer organization of the Museum. The program will outline and demonstrate Museum activities and benefits of membership.

Serving with Mrs. Allen as co-chairmen of the committee are Mrs. Frederic O'Brien and Mrs. John Olander.

Members of the planning committee include Mrs. Jerome E. Andrews Jr., Mrs. Lyman Bullard, Mrs. Milton Cole, Mrs. Thomas E. Duff, Mrs. Michael Gravalles, Mrs. Eugene Hand, Mrs. John B. Hawes, Mrs. Waters Kellogg, Mrs. J. A. Kyger, Mrs. E. Wells McLean, Mrs. Adair Miller, Mrs. Harold O. Nadler, Mrs. Albert Retelle, Mrs. Dudley Robinson, Mrs. Robert Saltonstall, Mrs. A. Leonard Seeche, Mrs. Donald Thompson and Mrs. Elbert G. Weaver.

Several Joined West Parish Church

The very lovely flowers on the Altar of the West Church last Sunday were the gift of Miss Helen Yeaw.

The Sacrament of Baptism was administered to the following children: Richard R. Carlisle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sanford Carlisle of Lovejoy rd. and to Arthur Earl Read III, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur E. Read II of Rolling Ridge rd.

The following friends were candidates for membership in West Church: Paul Gilday, on Confession of Faith, and by Letter of Transfer Mrs. Paul Gilday, Miss Emily Livingston and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mother.

Vacancy Created By Resignation

The Board of Health has released a copy of Dr. Michael A. Gravalles' resignation from the Board. The vacancy has been filled by Dr. John Wholey.

The resignation read: "After considerable deliberation in this regard, I find it necessary to resign my position on the Andover Board of Health to become effective as soon as a replacement can conveniently be found for me. 'I have had a great deal of difficulty attending meetings during the past year because of practice responsibilities and feel it necessary to make this move at this time.

"My association with the Andover Board of Health has been a very pleasant and profitable one. 'I am sorry to have to make this move, but can find no alternative. If I can be of any assistance in the future, please do not hesitate to call upon me."

Religious Book In Paperback Edition

A paperback edition will be published May 8 of one of the world's most widely-circulated religious books - "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy.

This is the book that for nearly 70 years has been read along with the Bible at all Christian Science church services, in place of sermons by ministers. Christian Scientists turn to it regularly for explanation of the Bible and religious inspiration.

Although this will be the first paperback edition of Science and Health, the book has already reached sales of several millions since it first appeared in 1875.

The new 700-page paperback, like all other editions of Science and Health, will be published by the Trustees under the will of Mary Baker Eddy, in Boston. It will be distributed by Harper & Row Inc., of New York, Evanston and London, to quality bookstores throughout the world; and also by the Publishers' Agent to Christian Science Reading Rooms.

TAX TIME and the CO-OP

Like most individuals and like other businesses, the CO-OP has been putting the finishing touches on its 1962 tax returns this week. And like all good citizens, we cheerfully pay our share of the necessary costs of operating all three levels of our government.

Below, we give our tax figures for the year just past:

TOWN.....	$ 4,893
STATE.....	2,263.41
FEDERAL.....	6,410.96

TOTAL TAXES $13,567.37

Some people seem to hold the erroneous view that a consumers' cooperative doesn't pay taxes. We hope that this disclosure will dispel that belief by showing that the Andover CO-OP helps pay for the costs of government at all levels of public service.

In common with others, what we expect from our government is not so much reduced service as increased efficiency of operation.

Young Gardeners Plan Field Trip

Members of the Andover Junior Garden Club finished their regular program of monthly meetings recently when Mrs. Robert Lange presented, through the medium of flannel board illustration, a talk entitled "Your Land and Mine".

Mrs. Lange was assisted by Mrs. Adeline Wright, who conducted a nature quiz which is a part of each meeting.

At the April 2nd meeting of the Garden Club, juniors had a most interesting display of tulip bulbs in bloom, and acyranthus plants which they had grown at home. This exhibit was the result of work done by Mrs. Joseph Myatt at the November meeting, at which time Mrs. Myatt demonstrated the correct method of potting bulbs for winter storage, and also the work of Mrs. Douglas Byers, who showed the correct method of plant propagation at the January meeting.

Monday, April 15, juniors will make a trip to Lexington where they will be taken on a tour of a widely-known nursery. They are to meet at 9:30 a.m. in the parking lot back of the Bay State Bank building. Each junior must present a parent's permission slip before going on this tour. Mrs. Francis

H. McCabe and Mrs. Daniel T. Sullivan are co-chairmen of the trip.

There are many more activities scheduled during the month of April, including a presentation of new plants to the Memorial Library, participation in Arbor Day plantings and a Workshop, under the direction of Mrs. Robert Lange, April 27, for those members who are entered in the design group of the International Flower Fantasy, a show being held in Boston in May. All juniors who have exhibits for the horticulture division of this show are asked to contact Mrs. McCabe so that their entries may be submitted to the chairman. Juniors will also have exhibits in the Spade and Trowel Flower Show which will be held in May.

A picnic in May will complete the Junior Garden Club calendar, with the exact date to be announced later. Mrs. Louis H. Anderson and Mrs. Philip K. Ryder are co-chairmen.

Residents Want Children Protected

Residents of Beacon st. are planning to present petitions to the Selectmen, School Committee and police department, in a triple effort to get either school bus transportation or sidewalks for their children.

Leader in the movement is William W. Stewart, 249 Beacon st.

Residents of the area appealed for help to the Selectmen, but were told that sidewalks are a long-range proposition. It was suggested they ask the School Committee for assistance.

But the residents didn't get anywhere with the School Committee either — Supt. Edward I. Erickson reported that the children all live within the mile walking distance, and the Committee said it is powerless to provide bus service. Members did not wish to break with policy on the grounds that similar requests will be received from all over town.

The School Committee, while informing the residents of the Board's decision, did not make any suggestions as to what they might do to get relief.

Mr. Sullivan claims that the last house on Beacon st. is more than a mile; Mr. Erickson says it is one mile to the Lawrence line.

The problem revolves around the dangerous intersection at Beacon st. and Chandler rd.

It was recalled this week that former Selectman Russell G. Doyle once listed this intersection as one of the worst in town, but there was no indication at that time of plans to change it.

Albert Retelle of Reservation rd. enjoyed the Skiing at Sugar Loaf Mountain during the past week.

Miss Peggy Danielson has returned to her studies at Skidmore College after enjoying the spring vacation at her home on Cutler rd.

Association Plans Professional Night

MISS RITA C. JACOBY

The Andover Teachers' Association will hold its first annual Professional Night Monday, April 22, at the High School.

The evening will be high-lighted by the presence of several outstanding speakers. Principal speaker will be Miss Rita C. Jacoby, president of the National Classroom Teachers. Her topic will be "Spotlight - the Child". William Hebert, assistant executive secretary in charge of legislative affairs for the Massachusetts Teachers' Association, will speak on the "MTA and Legislation". Miss Jacoby was educated in her native New Jersey in the Jersey City public schools. She received a Bachelor's and Master's degree from Newark State College. She has done additional work at Seton Hall University in South Orange, N. J. and also served as a participant in the 1960 White House Conference on Children and Youth.

A barbecued chicken dinner will be served prior to the speaking program beginning at 6:30. Reservations may be made by contacting Gerald Silverman at the Junior High School. Checks should be made payable to the Andover Teachers' Association. Mrs. Robert Enman is president of the ATA.

Teachers from Lawrence, Methuen, and North Andover are invited to attend.

Land Taken For Drainage Easements

The Selectmen have authorized land takings on Gleason st., thus securing easements necessary for the drainage work voted at town meeting.

ALBERT CARLSON ABOARD SUB

Albert G. Carlson Jr., interior communications electrician fireman, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert G. Carlson Sr., 11 Shaw-shen rd., is serving aboard the submarine USS Corporal, which recently participated in five weeks of Caribbean exercises with other Atlantic Fleet units in the Puerto Rican area.

Homeported at New London, Conn., the Corporal is equipped with the Navy's newest electronics and weapons systems and is one of the Atlantic Fleet's most effective weapons.

Dessert-Bridge By Friendly Guild

The Friendly Guild of Christ Church will hold a Dessert-Card Party Wednesday evening, April 24, in the Parish House.

The following are members of the Committee: Mrs. David Lockwood Tickets; Mrs. Sydney Pollard and Mrs. Malcolm Battles, Prizes; Mrs. C. Lincoln Giles Jr. and Mrs. Robert Goodwin, Decorations; Mrs. Alan Waters, Mrs. Frances Pare, Mrs. Eugene Graves, and Miss Agnes Gallagher, Refreshments; Mrs. Richard Wrigley, Publicity.

"Multiple Viewpoint helped me keep my job"

"I'm a salesman. My livelihood depends on my car. So when it began to give me trouble, I had to have a new one . . . almost an impossibility with some of the other expenses I'd had.

"Then I talked with the auto loan people at Merrimack Valley National Bank. They explained how a loan on my life insurance would cover a substantial down payment, and the bank would then finance the rest . . . a happy solution!

"Increased commissions paid the premiums. The mileage expenses I receive covered the car payments. Careful budgeting helped pay off my insurance loan. Now I'm much better off financially and I have a reliable car to visit customers and prospects.

"Good thing I went to Merrimack Valley National where 'Multiple Viewpoint' helps with any financial problem!"

EDITORIAL THOUGHTS

An Open Letter

The J. P. Stevens Co., Inc.
New York
New York

Dear Sirs:

In the two weeks since you announced closing of the Marland Mills here, the sharp edges of disappointment have been dulled slightly. And we have had a chance to think about the problems this creates for the town, but mostly, for the 453 men and women employed in that mill.

We recognize the realities you cited, in announcing the end of the Marland Mills.

But we can not let this prevent us from appealing to you to re-appraise the situation.

The mill has a rich history in our community, dating back to 1807. The mill and the town have grown substantially over the years. Its loss is, perhaps, a tragedy of the times — but not one that we can accept without appealing to you for a reconsideration of your position.

From the human viewpoint, many of your employees here have served your company faithfully for many years. Some are nearing retirement. Your announcement was a deep shock to them; many are perhaps unemployable because of age and skill. They deserve your consideration too.

On their behalf, as well as the town's, we ask you to take another look at the local operation; to ask yourselves whether or not it is possible to extend its life, in the hope that the current negotiations over imports will be successfully concluded.

We hope your answer will at least be one of willingness to reconsider your decision.

Respectfully,
The Andover Townsman

Wise Decision

The Selectmen seem to have exercised good judgment in classifying employees and officials of the town, under the conflict of interest law.

The designations appear to be liberal, permitting as much mutual trust as can be obtained under the statute. For that law gives one the feeling that all municipal employees and officials are constantly scheming and plotting against the best interests of the community.

As far as Andover is concerned, this is an unpardonable implication; there has been not the slightest indication that men and women here serve for any other purpose than doing their share towards the welfare of the community. To be sure, we may not always agree with their decisions, but this in no way criticizes their motives.

Those persons who have been designated as special employees, with exemptions allowing them to make contracts with the town, now bear the responsibility of their public and business activities. The town has indicated its opinion that they can be trusted; we are equally certain that this is a reasonable and sensible decision.

There may be situations in which a conflict, under the statute, can not be resolved and still protect the officeholder from penalties.

We hope there will not be too many public-spirited citizens driven from public posts via the technicalities of the statute.

Safety Comes First

The problems faced by residents of Beacon st., in relation to the safety of their school-age children, are grave indeed.

Anyone who has driven up Beacon st., and who has personally witnessed some of the conditions prevailing at the intersection of Chandler rd., can sympathize with the residents.

It is one of the most dangerous corners in the community. Its geographical disadvantages are made worse by the speeding, even the racing that goes on there.

It seems to us that the Selectmen, police department and School Committee should forget, for the moment, the technicalities of jurisdiction, and concentrate on the safety of the children.

Their lives come first, before questions of precedent, or of arguments over whose responsibility this is.

Down the Years with The Townsman

75 Years Ago — April, 1887

The hoodlums were at work Saturday night and Sunday night in the vicinity of the depot, smashing windows at the station, taking down street lamps, and breaking through the bulkhead into the cellar of a house nearby. It is scarcely necessary to add that Lawrence liquor is at the bottom of all this.

John H. Flint has retired from the treasurership of the Craighead and Kintz Manufacturing Co. at Ballardvale. He is succeeded by Mr. Wyman of Boston.

The Republican caucus last Saturday evening elected the following: to the state convention, A. S. Manning, W. S. Jenkins, Barnett Rogers; to the district convention, Peter D. Smith, John L. Smith and John N. Cole.

Nine seminary students were licensed to preach by the Piscataqua Association at Portsmouth yesterday.

50 Years Ago — April, 1913

J. P. West has purchased a Ford touring car.

Percy R. Holt of Maple ave. spent the weekend visiting in New York.

Valpey Bros. received an order last week for 43 pounds of corned beef to be shipped to a hotel in Washington, D. C.

Chester J. Farmer, assistant in biological chemistry at the Harvard Medical School, has been appointed professor in chemistry in the Marquette University School of Medicine, located in Milwaukee, Wis.

25 Years Ago — April, 1938

The Taxpayers Association has expressed absolute opposition to the two articles coming up at the special town meeting. They deal with surfacing Elm st., and building sidewalks there.

Truckers are cooperatively helping solve the local problem of heavy trucks passing through the town at all hours of the day. They have agreed to tell their drivers, on all non-local trucks, to use the By-Pass instead of Route 28.

Dr. William Dacre Walker, well-known and respected physician, died Tuesday night.

W. Gordon Coutts of Elm st. has been appointed a permanent fireman, taking the place of William Rea, retired. Coutts has been substituting in the department for a year and a half.

John McDonald has been confirmed by the U. S. Senate for the position of postmaster. He served in that position from 1914 to 1923 and was appointed again in 1933.

10 Years Ago — April, 1953

Two new appointments to the teaching staff have been approved, Mrs. Eleanor Daniels and Mrs. Florence A. Read were named.

A protest against the speed and noise of sand trucks on Ballardvale rd. has been received by the Selectmen.

A break at the West Center School was discovered Monday. Someone apparently broke in during the weekend, but nothing of value was taken.

Dedication of the boulder on the Ballardvale playground will be one of the festivities of Memorial Day.

Friends of the Library are invited to an open house at the Ballardvale branch this Sunday afternoon.

What Our Readers Say—

To the Editor of the Townsman: "While the embers of town meeting have cooled considerably, there are still those who do not comprehend the motive underlying the action of the Andover Taxpayers Association in asking for the arbitrary 2 percent reduction in the overall budget. The Taxpayers Association had not participated in the preparation of the budget; they had no first-hand knowledge of what the actual needs were; nor are they aware of the potential contingencies exclusive to each department serving the town.

"They chose to overlook the blood, sweat and tears which had already gone into the individual conferences which the department heads had had with the Finance Committee, which resulted in decreases in personnel, deferment of replacing inefficient, out-moded and inadequate equipment (already deferred one and two years), all intended to cope with the growing needs and expected services of the town.

"The sincere efforts that had been made to submit realistic budgets on the first presentation were also ignored. It is often forgotten that the town employees also pay taxes, and they too are interested in keeping the tax rate down. But continued pressures against honest, conscientious attempts to give efficient services can result in one thing — unrealistic budgets! Budgets which, after a 2 percent reduction, will still produce a working surplus and a much higher tax rate.

"It also seems strange that the Finance Committee at town meeting did not attempt to justify the work they had already put in, paring the individual budgets beyond the bone before they were presented to the meeting — nor did any of the other officials seriously defend them. Could it be that they knew the intention of the Taxpayers Association and were willing that inefficiency should take over? Only the inevitable requests for additional funds will prove or disprove this point. Perhaps the adage of penny wise and pound foolish will still be applicable."

Irene H. McCarthy

To the Editor of the Townsman: "I found the article on Pomp's Pond by Winthrop Newman, of much interest and ably written. It is the sort of feature story that I hope you will find space for in future issues."

The library will supply coloring dye for eggs.

Monday afternoon, April 15, at 3:30 o'clock all are cordially invited to the Egg Tree program. There will be Easter stories, including "Easter Fires" (an Indian story) and "The Egg Tree", the famous story by Kathryn Milhous. Prizes for winning contestants will be awarded during the afternoon.

CAPITOL COMMENT

By YOUR CONGRESSMAN
BRAD MORSE

There is increasing evidence of a growing concern here in Washington and throughout the nation over the effect of imports from low-wage countries on the American economy. Imports, particularly in the shoe and woolen textile industries, have reached an alarming level and in some cases have led to tragic results.

In the woolen textile industry, for example, officials of the J. P. Stevens & Co., Inc. last week announced that after months of painstaking appraisal and after exhausting all other alternatives, they had decided to discontinue operations at their Marland Plant in Andover. Some 453 persons presently employed at the plant will lose their jobs as a result.

The machinery and equipment at the Marland plant is completely up-to-date. Over $1,450,000 has been invested since the end of the Korean crisis but, even the most modern techniques could not compete with the increasing flood of imports.

This tragic development confirms the fears of many people that the growing quantities of foreign wool imports would cause more unemployment in Massachusetts, still the major wool textile producing state in the nation.

Although I supported the President's Trade Expansion Act during the last Congress, the seriousness of shoe and textile imports from foreign lands prompted me to urge — on two separate occasions in hand-delivered letters to President Kennedy — imposition of temporary import quotas on wool, textile products until a more permanent solution could be reached through international negotiations.

As any Bay State resident knows, both the shoe and woolen textile industries have made vital contributions to our economy. Expanded trade we must have — let there be no doubt about it. But it must be achieved — and I am confident that it can be — without destroying United States industries and American jobs.

This problem has been studied to death. There is no question that the domestic woolen textile and shoe industries are being harmed by continued high foreign imports. To delay action further is only to encourage idle plants and jobless workers.

Doherty Elected to Head Board

James D. Doherty, 9 Juniper St., has been re-elected chairman of the Recreation Committee. Meeting Monday night, the Committee also elected Recreation Director Leslie S. Bartow as secretary.

During the evening, the resignation of Donald D. Dunn as Pomp's Pond director, was accepted with the understanding that he has been appointed to the same position in the school system. The Committee voted to recommend Wilbur Hixon for this position, which is filled by the town manager. Mr. Hixon was head of the guard last year, coaches basketball and teaches history at the High School. George Snyder will be recommended for reappointment as playground director.

The possibility of instrumental programs on the playgrounds, suggested by Edward Grigoli, was discussed. Interested young people were asked to notify Mr. Grigoli at Mr. Bartow.

Plans for the Easter Egg hunt on Saturday were outlined by member Walter Pearson.

Other plans discussed included work at the pond, where siding is being put on the bath houses; a training period for playground employees that may last a week; meetings will be held monthly.

single bonds that might be sold by the town.

Fred W. Doyle, Trustee of Pundard Free School, allowed to do general business with the town; Frederick E. Cheever and Irving Whitcomb, Cornell Fund, both special and exempt to allow sale of insurance to the town.

William D. McIntyre, Spring Grove Cemetery, exempt re insurance sales to town; Malcolm E. Andgren, Spring Grove Cemetery, exempt allowing town-paid burials; Finance Committee - Douglas Doherty, exemption allowing sale of insurance to town; Frank L.

Brigham, Planning Board of Appeals, exempt re selling insurance to town.

Recreation Committee - James Doherty, exempt re insurance sales to town, but not school department; Walter Pearson, exemption allows doing business with town except for recreation department; Mrs. R. Milton Cole, exemption for business with town, except items for recreation department. This was explained as effecting her husband, whose hardware store does business with the municipality.

New Materials Committee - James Hamilton exempt for bidding on town construction; Conservation Commission, Albert Retelle, exemption specifies that he can't do business with the Commission as representative of his firm, or as president of AVIS, Heinrich Rohrbach, Conservation Commission exempt except for doing business with the Commission.

Mostly Special

Other appointed and elected officials were named as special employees - this allows them to appear before other boards than their own, but not to make contracts with the town.

Held up was the category of plumbing inspector, assistant plumbing inspector, and Board of Health member Harold Rutter, who serves as the assistant. Action will be taken on the subject after the town manager confers with Mr. Rutter.

The Selectmen's action will be valid, unless either of the absent members, William Stewart and B. Allen Rowland, wish to further discuss the subject.

Urges Hikers Stay Off Expressways

Public Works Commissioner Jack P. Ricciardi has warned hikers and groups planning hikes not to use the expressways.

"Our expressways, or limited access highways, cannot be used for hiking," Ricciardi said. "It is not that the state does not want the people to enjoy the beauties of Massachusetts, but not on expressways which have speed limits up to 60 miles per hour. Motorists should not be forced to worry about hiking groups on these roadways which have been constructed for fast transportation."

"I urge hikers, both individuals and groups, to please consider their safety and use other areas for their hikes," Ricciardi said. "The expressways are for motor vehicles - and for motor vehicles only."

PRACTICING PHARMACY IS AN ART

Most prescription drugs are now pre-compounded by the pharmaceutical firms. But, many of them are so potent, have such similar names, that it requires expert knowledge to always be certain we dispense exactly what the physician prescribes.

There are still prescriptions for ointments, lotions, capsules, eye preparations, etc. which require individual compounding. We welcome these prescriptions, even though they take more time to prepare.

YOUR DOCTOR CAN PHONE US when you need a medicine. Pick up your prescription if shopping nearby, or we will deliver promptly without extra charge. A great many people entrust us with their prescriptions. May we compound yours?

JAMES D. DOHERTY

James D. Doherty of Juniper Insurance Agency Inc., was elected president of the Massachusetts Insurance Federation of Massachusetts, at a meeting Monday in Boston.

The post is normally filled by company executive, or a partner in one of the large, metropolitan agencies. The Federation is made up of all stock companies doing business in Massachusetts, their agents and brokers. Primarily it deals with legislation affecting the insurance industry.

Mr. Doherty has been in the insurance business locally for 25 years, and is treasurer of the Juniper Insurance Agency Inc. He is a graduate of Boston College, class of 1937.

He recently served as honorary marshal at the silver anniversary reunion, and was also a marshal at the opening centennial celebration of the College.

He is a director of the Greater Lawrence Chamber of Commerce, serves as head of the Recreation Committee locally and is a former president of the Independent Insurance Agents of Greater Lawrence.

Merchants Are Given Warning

A "Merchant's Alert" program is now in effect for Andover business firms.

The program is designed to protect member stores against stolen checks, counterfeit money and shoplifters, and is sponsored by the Andover Board of Trade. According to Charles R. Dunklee, manager of the Board's activities, a telephone call system has been established to alert member business firms of dangers such as stolen checks. The firms then alert their employees to be on the lookout for these dangers. The alert system begins when the Greater Lawrence Chamber of Commerce Office, which operates the program for the Board, receives notice from either the Lawrence or Andover police. The alert notice is immediately telephoned to several contact members, who in turn notify other members so that in a matter of minutes every member concerned is alerted.

The program was started several years ago by the Lawrence Chamber for its Downtown Lawrence members and has been very successful in preventing losses from stolen checks and counterfeit monies.

"We are very grateful for the cooperation which the police give us to make this program work," Dunklee stated. "Not all of the ABT's members are included in this program; only those that deal directly with the public such as the retailers, super markets, etc.," Dunklee added. "However the program is open to all members of the ABT who wish to participate."

Enjoyed Reunion On Submarine

Capt. George L. Street III, 22 Linda rd., reports that his much-publicized luncheon aboard the submarine Tirante with Gov. Endicott Peabody and Comdr. Wallace A. Greene, and young Robert Peabody, proved very enjoyable. It provided a nostalgic backward look into the past, when Capt. Street and Gov. Peabody served aboard the Submarine.

The Street family have lived in Andover for three years, although Capt. Street has spent a year of this time in California with a submarine squadron. Both Capt. and Mrs. Street were originally from Virginia.

Local Scientist On Contest Board

Dr. Daniel Scola, 2 High Plain rd., has been named to serve on the 1963 Chemistry Contest Committee of the Northeastern Section of the American Chemical Society.

In this capacity he will work with other professional chemists in the preparation and administration of the examination that will be given to approximately 700 high school students in eastern Massachusetts and New Hampshire.

The students will compete for nearly $1,500 in scholarships, the first prize of which will be $500.

Main purpose of the contest, according to the Chairman, Dr. Ronald Milburn of Boston University, "is to stimulate interest in chemistry and challenge students in scientific pursuits."

Family Reunion Was Held Here

Mrs. Clara M. Stocks, who makes her home with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stocks, 469 South Main st., was happy to welcome her large family at an informal reunion Sunday, March 24.

LT. WILLIAM K. SNOW

Lt. William K. Snow, U.S. Navy, died suddenly Saturday, April 6, of a heart attack while at his base in Brunswick, Ga.

He lived at 14 Binney st. and Hills Beach, Biddeford, Me. He was 42.

A native of Methuen, Lt. Snow was the son of George Abbott Sr. and Alice (Kershaw) Snow. He graduated from Searles High School, Methuen, class of 1938 and completed courses in the Massachusetts Radio and Curtis Radar and Radio Schools, both of Boston, and Bliss Electrical School, Tacoma, Wash.

He enlisted in the Navy in 1942 and served 21 years and three months. A member of the Antarctic expedition under the command of Rear Admiral Richard E. Byrd, he sailed Dec. 3, 1946, aboard the flagship Mt. Olympus, which made cold weather tests. He recently returned from a three-year tour of duty in Naples, Italy.

He leaves his wife, Mrs. Helen (Mercier) Snow; a daughter, Miss Susan Snow; four sisters, Mrs. Charlotte Hart of Lowell, Mrs. Dorothy Rioux of Lawrence, Miss Alice Snow of Hills Beach, Biddeford, Me. and Mrs. Janet LeBelle of North Andover; a brother, George A. Snow Jr. of Andover; also four nieces and four nephews.

The funeral was held Wednesday from the Dennett and Craig Funeral Home in Saco, Me., with services at 1:30 p.m. in the Saco Baptist Church.

LILIAN J. E. FOX

On Friday, April 5, a memorial service was held at Wolfeboro, New Hampshire for Lilian E. Fox, former Punchard teacher. Miss Fox retired in 1951 at the age of fifty-five, after thirty years of faithful service in the Andover Schools.

She was born in Milton, New Hampshire and went to live in Wolfeboro when her father retired from his work with the Boston and Maine Railroad. Later she made her home in Andover before retiring to Wolfeboro in 1951.

Miss Fox was a graduate of Brewster Academy and Radcliffe College. In 1920 she came to Andover where she taught English and some Latin until the time of her retirement. In April, 1946 she was appointed Head of the English Department for the Senior and Junior High Schools, a position which she filled most ably in addition to her regular duties as a teacher and as senior class adviser. To those who knew Miss Fox, her name is synonymous with service. During her long association with Punchard High School, she devoted herself unselfishly to the youth of Andover, sparing herself no effort to give them the best instruction possible. To the classes whom she served as adviser she gave unstintingly of her time and energy. She was equally ready to be of service to her colleagues at Punchard. She is remembered by the latter and by her former students as an outstanding teacher and a loyal friend.

Miss Fox was a member of First Church of Christ Scientist in Wolfeboro. She is survived by a sister, Sarah M. Fox, of Wolfeboro.

WILLIAM W. SELLERS

William W. Sellers, 65, of Bainbridge rd., Reading, a long-time resident of Andover, died last Monday night at his home after a long illness. He was the husband of Mary (Shea) Sellers.

A native of Lawrence, he was proprietor of P. E. Staples Co. in Swampscott and was a member of the Board of Trade in that community.

Besides his wife, he is survived by two sons, Dr. William W. Sellers Jr. of North Reading and James R. of Reading; six sisters, Mrs. Mabel Miller of Boston, Mrs. Willa Kelly of Chicago Ill., Mrs. Ruth Hooper of Hamilton, Bermuda, Mrs. Leo O'Connor and Mrs. Grace Myatt of Andover and Mrs. Stanley Stone of Farmington, N. H.; also two grand-children and several nieces and nephews.

The funeral will be held Friday at 3 p.m. from the Lundgren Funeral Home, The Rev. Frederick B. Noss, minister of the South Church, will officiate, and burial will be in Spring Grove Cemetery.

JAMES M. HOLDEN

James M. Holden, 46, 2 Brechin ter. was found dead in the garage behind his home early Tuesday night.

Police said a hose pipe was attached to the exhaust pipe of his car, and led through a window of the garage. He was last seen Monday.

Mr. Holden was a native of Andover and lived here all of his life. A veteran of World War II, with the U. S. Army, he was employed at Tyer Rubber Co.

He is survived by his wife, Ruth; one son, James, of Andover; two brothers, William E. of Andover and Alexander of Hartford, Conn.; two sisters, Mary A., wife of Edward C. Smith of Andover and Mrs. Joanne H. Blair of Wilmington.

Funeral arrangements, in charge of the Lundgren Funeral Home, were incomplete at press time Wednesday.

DEACON - A daughter, Debra Jean, March 28, to Mr. and Mrs. Paul C. Deacon of Northfield. The mother was Patricia Gilman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Gilman of Westboro. The paternal grandparents are the Rev. and Mrs. W. Harold Deacon of Andover. The family includes two sons, David and Douglas.

Engagement

Santuccio - Berthel

Mr. and Mrs. James Berthel, 18 Arundel st., announce the engagement of their daughter, Margaret Mary, to John Santuccio, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Santuccio of Juniper rd.

A November wedding is planned. Miss Berthel is a senior at Catherine Labouré School of Nursing. Her fiancé attended Westworth and Franklin Institutes.

Pre-schoolers On 2 Field Trips

During the past week the children from the Free Church Co-op Pre-School took two trips.

The first outing was at the home of the Donald Sagassers, where they saw the family's cat and her litter of kittens.

The next field trip was to a greenhouse in Tewksbury. There the students observed plants in their various stages of growth. Each child "potted" his own corn plant and later took the container back to the school. When ready, transplanting the plants will be transferred by the child into his own garden at home. Each child also received a flowering potted plant.

The past week also found the children busily engaged in the art of decorating Easter eggs, using both hard boiled and blown-out egg shells.

Fulbright Grant For J. Wennik

Joseph B. Wennik has received a Fulbright grant to study German languages and literature, during the 1963-'64 academic year, at the University of Mainz in Germany.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Wennik, 14 Lucerne st., he graduated from Phillips Academy and Yale University. He had served in the U.S. Army Intelligence Corps in Germany and has been instructing in German and English at Holderness School, Plymouth, N.H.

In addition to his teaching duties Wennik has been coaching various football and baseball and hockey. He also served as school counselor this year.

Mr. Wennik and his wife, the former Inga Kuhn of Kassel, West Germany, will leave for the University of Mainz this August.

TASTING TOUR SCHEDULED

DEACON — A daughter, Debra Jean, March 28, to Mr. and Mrs. Paul C. Deacon of Northfield. The mother was Patricia Gilman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Gilman of Westboro. The paternal grandparents are the Rev. and Mrs. W. Harold Deacon of Andover. The family includes two sons, David and Douglas.

The contemporary home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter C. Wilson Jr., 28 William st., is set in a grove of trees. The combined kitchen and family room has an eating area with corner fireplace and a bookcase wall with built-in T.V. A unique glass wall has a sliding door opening on a patio and swimming pool. The unusual decor of the living room carries an oriental motif throughout.

Cleverly planned and executed by Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Howe is the four-level, old brick and beige, hand-split shingled home at 11 Smithshire Estates. The home combines both family informality and gracious living for the multi-activities of the Howes and their four children. The "family kitchen" facing the street is complete with fireplace, pegged floors and braided rugs. The living room, with raised dining area, reflects the mistress' love of blue-greens and white. Five steps up lead to the sleeping quarters, four steps down is the family room. A few more steps down is the "apartment" of the two older boys, who live away at Kimball Union Academy.

The David C. Anderson's home at 19 Kariton cir. is a contemporary ranch built from a House and Garden "House-of-the-Year" design and modified to the tastes of its owner. White marble floors, floral wallpaper, and a careful choice of color unity throughout make it distinctive. Shell plaques used in the den, created by Mrs. Anderson, together with other shell motifs, are prominent in the decor. The kitchen is a housewife's dream in shades of lavender and pink, with one complete wall devoted to a display of tea tiles. The large, lower-level playroom meets all the needs of the teen-age set. One of the charming contemporary homes of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Schlappe, one enters a large hall featuring a beautiful curving stairway. A large many-paned bow window is the focal point of the living room. The king-size kitchen has a brick wall with built in oven and charcoal grill. A collection of Hummel figurines are displayed on fireplace shelves in the colorful living room.

After visiting these five new homes in Andover, guests will proceed to North Andover to see two homes built long ago. The charming apartment of Mr. and Mrs. Bacigalupo is an interesting adaptation of an old house to modern life. It is a very convenient up-to-date apartment made from the large house on the Bolton estate. And an appropriate climax to the tour will be a lovely old Colonial house which has been restored with careful attention to every detail. This stately house is now the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Wilkinson, who planned and supervised its restoration.

Mothers wishing to go on the tour may arrange to have their children cared for at the Y if they phone in advance. Tickets may be obtained from the Y or from a large ticket committee headed by Mrs. William Sawyer.

PAPER DRIVE BY GIRL SCOUTS

Girl Scout Troop 9 will hold a town-wide paper drive April 13 and 20.

Proceeds from the event are to be used to finance a trip to the World's Fair. Mrs. Stanley Butcher, 4 Washington ave., can be contacted by those having paper for the drive.

Mr. and Mrs. John Baxter and daughters, Darlene and Suzanne, of Union City, N. J., were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Eisenhower of Pine Tree ln.

PLANS FOR PARKING ARE AT STANDSTILL

A temporary stand-still in efforts to get a parking area for Raytheon cars, in industrial land across the railroad track from the plant, was reported this week.

A company spokesman said North Andover's refusal to approve the access road out to Waverly rd. had halted planning in that direction, at least for the moment. Some temporary relief can be obtained by utilizing about 65 spaces in the company's lot, which is reserved for snow removal during the winter.

Tour Of Homes
Coming May 15

May 15, between the hours of 11 and 4:30, the Temple Emanuel Garden Club and the Sisterhood of Temple Emanuel will present "A Breath of Spring".

Committee Will Report To Manager

The Recreation Committee, in the first official reaction to the Selectmen's edict that reports of all meetings be provided to them, has voted to send the reports to the town manager.

Members agreed that, as appointees of the manager's, the committee should report to him. But they also felt that he should forward the reports for the Selectmen to see.

They also agreed that the reports should be sent to School Supt. Edward I. Erickson for the enlightenment of the School Committee regarding recreation plans.

Indictments Were Handed Down

Robert E. Howard, 31, of Oriole dr., was indicted, with four others, by a federal grand jury last week, in connection with alleged receipt of $15,000 in cash, plus free landscaping, electric wiring, heat and air conditioning systems for his home.

Howard was connected with the Raytheon purchasing activities at the time named in the indictment. Also named were Bernard J. Champy of Methuen, general manager of Champy Construction Co. of Lawrence; Albert P. and Michael Manzi of Methuen, officers of Manzi Electrical Corp.; Martin Brown of Newton, president-treasurer of J. and M. Brown Co. of Jamaica Plain; also John G. Desmond of Lexington, general manager of Cox Engineering Co. of Cambridge.

The government alleges that the firms contributed cash, or free services, in Howard's home. The indictment charges that kickbacks were involved, in regard to orders and sub-contracts previously awarded to various companies.

The Manzi brothers were accused of giving cash; Brown of donating the electrical wiring; Desmond of installing the heating and air conditioning systems for free; and Champy of providing a new fireplace, the plastering and the landscaping.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Morrison of Pawtucket, R. I., were weekend guests of Richard McAnern, 145 Hidden rd. Mr. Morrison was a classmate of Mr. McAnern at Clark University, and is now editor of the East Providence Post, a weekly newspaper.
